“Triple Gold” for Buzzard’s Roost Whiskeys in Trio of Competitions

Gold Medals Go to Buzzard’s Roost’s Most Popular Double Oak Whiskeys

Louisville, KY – July 8, 2025 – Buzzard’s Roost Distillery is feathering its nest with a trio of new Gold Medals from three of the industry’s most rigorous professional competitions:

- Gold for the new Signature Double Oak Bourbon from the San Francisco World Spirits Competition
- Gold for Bottled in Bond Bourbon from the Ascot Awards
- Gold for Bottled in Bond Bourbon from the Barleycorn Awards

“Accolades like this are valuable third-party endorsements for the quality of our whiskeys,” says Buzzard’s Roost Co-founder and CEO Judy Hollis Jones. “These are from some of the industry’s most experienced and knowledgeable experts.”

Buzzard’s Roost Signature Double Oak Bourbon was introduced in late March 2025. It fully expresses the proprietary double-oak style that for which Buzzard’s Roost is known. This 5-year-old 100-proof bourbon is priced at $45 SRP to appeal to all whiskey lovers.

Buzzard’s Roost Bottled in Bond Bourbon debuted in mid-2024 and quickly racked up honors, including 95 points from Wine Enthusiast and an impressive ranking of second place in the Bottled in Bond Category in the 2024 International Whisky Competition. With a mash bill of 51% corn, 45% wheat and 4% malted barley, it is Buzzard’s Roost first wheated expression, as well as its first bottled-in-bond release. This 100-proof bourbon is priced at $65 SRP. Like all Buzzard’s Roost whiskeys, it is double-oaked in lightly charred, precision-toasted barrels to coax out layers of flavor.
